Honor Dean 2013 (9th Edition)

THOUGHTS ABOUT P.I. INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

I believe that the P.I. International Summer School, which has been found in 2005 and advanced by my colleague Mrs. Maria BUMBARU, is a great opportunity for our colleagues to come together every summer to meet each other, get acquainted and share their experiences.

I was very excited when my dear colleague Mrs. Maria BUMBARU invited me to the P.I. International Summer school for the first time with my 3 other friends in 2011 (7th Edition). I had the chance to make a presentation in this summer school which consisted of professional detectives from various countries and to explain the private investigation activities in Turkey.

I had the chance to participate for the second time in the 2012 (8th Edition) summer school along with 3 other colleagues from Turkey and meet colleagues from other nations and become friends with some of them. Beside the opportunity to share experiences and knowledge with colleagues from Romania, Italy, Germany, England, Spain, Hungary, Slovenia, Ukraine and other countries, I also made a broad presentation about "Private Investigations and Professional Research in Turkey".

In accordance with the P.I. Summer School traditions, I was nominated for the "Honorary Dean" title in the annual elections and was selected for the 9th term unanimously, which was a great honor for me.

As the 9th edition Honor Dean of the Summer School, I prepared and realized the program of 2013 with Mrs. Maria BUMBARU.

We started a "Training of International Private Detective Trainers" in the 9th edition of the summer school and gave the participants an "International Private Detectives Trainer Certificate" that is valid in all the EU states.

During the summer school activities, which is hosted by Mrs. Maria BUMBARU, we had the
